

COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY, DOCTORAL MINOR

ADMISSIONS

First Step: All graduate students must utilize the Graduate Student Portal in MyUW to add, change, or discontinue any major/named option, doctoral minor, or graduate/professional certificate. To apply to the Counseling Psychology minor, please log in to MyUW, click on Graduate Student Portal, and then click on Add/Change Programs. The Counseling Psychology graduate program manager will review your application for admittance, and reach out to the student regarding the next steps (below).

Next Steps: PhD students wishing to complete a PhD minor in Counseling Psychology should complete their program's minor form, listing four graduate courses in Counseling Psychology that they wish to take (or have already taken). If the student has selected a faculty member from the Counseling Psychology faculty to be their minor advisor, the form should be signed by them. If no specific faculty member has been selected, the form may be turned in to the Graduate Program Manager in room 335B, who will then forward the request to the Chair for approval. Following the signature of the CP minor advisor or Department Chair, the student should then get the signature of their home department advisor.

The completed form with all signatures must then be given to the CP Graduate Program Manager, who will maintain a copy in the CP files.
