

CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION, DOCTORAL MINOR

REQUIREMENTS

Doctoral students in another UW–Madison program who desire a doctoral minor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction should seek and enlist a faculty member in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction to serve as their doctoral minor advisor. Twelve credits are required for a doctoral minor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction. These twelve credits must be from 700 level (unless lower-level courses are designated as having graduate attributes) and above substantive graduate level courses which exclude credits earned through independent reading, independent study, research, and thesis.
