

ATHLETIC TRAINING, M.S.

The Master's degree in Athletic Training is a professional program that provides rigorous and comprehensive preparation for students seeking a health care career in athletic training. Athletic trainers (ATs) are multi-skilled health care professionals who collaborate with physicians as part of the health care team to provide preventative services, emergency care, clinical diagnosis, therapeutic intervention and rehabilitation of injuries and medical condition. Athletic trainers provide health care in a variety of practice settings for people involved in all levels of physical activity. Practice environments include youth to professional sports, military and public service personnel, secondary schools, colleges, universities, performing arts, workers with physically demanding jobs, physician practice settings, and much more.

Prospective students should visit the program website (<https://kinesiology.education.wisc.edu/AT/>) for additional information on program outcomes and opportunities.

The program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (<https://caate.net/>) and students are eligible to sit for the national Board of Certification exam (<https://bocatc.org/>) after successful completion of the MSAT program.
