

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY, OTD

The occupational therapy program resides in the Department of Kinesiology (<https://kinesiology.education.wisc.edu/>) and offers two graduate programs options in the OTD: an entry-level doctor of occupational therapy (Entry-Level (<http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/kinesiology/occupational-therapy-otd/occupational-therapy-entry-level-otd/>)) and a post-professional doctor of occupational therapy (Post-Professional (<http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/kinesiology/occupational-therapy-otd/occupational-therapy-post-professional-otd/>)). Occupational therapists interested in pursuing advanced research training may also apply to the MS (<http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/kinesiology/kinesiology-ms/>)/PhD (<http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/kinesiology/kinesiology-phd/>) in Kinesiology with a specialization in Occupational Science. The purpose of the graduate program is to prepare clinicians, researchers, and teachers who possess a solid foundation in both the theoretical and applied aspects of the disciplines of occupational therapy and science.
