

BUSINESS: REAL ESTATE AND URBAN LAND ECONOMICS, MS

Founded in 1900, the School of Business established one of the first five business programs in the nation. That entrepreneurial spirit remains strong.

As a student in the School of Business, you will find yourself inspired by peers, staff, alumni, business leaders, and world-renowned faculty who are focused, collaborative, and engaged in every aspect of the student experience. You will join a highly ranked program that equips you to meet both academic and career challenges. Employers value School of Business graduates because of the comprehensive preparation this learning environment provides. Graduates possess highly sought-after general management and specialized expertise in business.

Joining collaborative, inspiring, trustworthy, and progressive WSB alumni, Business Badgers graduate prepared to lead their organizations to success and transform the world of business. Together Forward!

NAMED OPTION IN REAL ESTATE AND URBAN ECONOMICS

The MS–Business: Real Estate and Urban Economics offers a holistic and in-depth real estate graduate education you won't get anywhere else: world-class faculty in the classroom, hands-on projects and case studies, internships, and domestic and international travel opportunities. Students have the opportunity to pursue a specialization such as Applied Real Estate Investment (AREIT), Private Equity (PE), or Affordable and Sustainable Housing Development, or focus on development and complementary electives through the Core path. With support from the James A. Graaskamp Center for Real Estate (<https://business.wisc.edu/centers/graaskamp/>), you will gain knowledge and make industry connections to pursue the real estate career path of your choice.
