FUNDING

GRADUATE SCHOOL RESOURCES

Resources to help you afford graduate study might include assistantships, fellowships, traineeships, and financial aid. Further funding information (<https://grad.wisc.edu/funding/>) is available from the Graduate School. Be sure to check with your program for individual policies and restrictions related to funding.

MSW PROGRAM RESOURCES

Thanks to the generosity of friends and alumni, the Sandra Rosenbaum School of Social Work also has a number of Awards and Scholarships (<https://socwork.wisc.edu/students/awards-and-scholarships/>) available to MSW applicants and current MSW students, ranging from several hundred dollars to covering the full cost of tuition and fees, as well as training grants and other opportunities (<https://socwork.wisc.edu/students/awards-and-scholarships/#other-opportunities>) that can provide funding for students with specific career interests.

Students also have access to federal loans and work study.

SUMMER COURSEWORK MAY BE REQUIRED

Students should make sure they have enough financial aid to cover summer classes. We strongly recommend students talk to the Office of Student Financial Aid (<https://financialaid.wisc.edu/>) to create a financial aid plan that will meet their needs.

PART-TIME MSW PROGRAM STUDENTS NOTE

Students in this program may not take courses outside the prescribed curriculum without faculty advisor and program director approval. Students in this program cannot enroll concurrently in other undergraduate or graduate degree programs.
