

AMERICAN INDIAN AND INDIGENOUS STUDIES, CERTIFICATE

CERTIFICATE IN AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES

A certificate in American Indian & Indigenous Studies is a way of giving recognition to students who have made a significant effort to learn about American Indian & Indigenous culture and the place of American Indians in American society. Students receiving a certificate will have the achievement officially recorded via transcript notation.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A CERTIFICATE IN AMERICAN INDIAN & INDIGENOUS STUDIES?

Students of American Indian & Indigenous Studies go on to successful careers in administration, advising, academics, advocacy, the arts, business, community outreach, consulting, education, government, health or health education, journalism, library science, literacy programming, lobbying, management, politics, publishing, school counseling, social work, research, and many more.

HOW TO GET IN

To begin the certificate declaration process, students must submit the Certificate Program Application form to the American Indian and Indigenous Studies office. This form can be found on our Certificate Website (<https://amindian.wisc.edu/certificate-program/>). The certificate is open to Special students and undergraduate students regardless of the college of enrollment.

L&S CAREER RESOURCES

Every L&S major opens a world of possibilities. SuccessWorks (<https://successworks.wisc.edu/>) at the College of Letters & Science helps students turn the academic skills learned in their major, certificates, and other coursework into fulfilling lives after graduation, whether that means jobs, public service, graduate school or other career pursuits.

In addition to providing basic support like resume reviews and interview practice, SuccessWorks offers ways to explore interests and build career skills from their very first semester/term at UW all the way through graduation and beyond.

Students can explore careers in one-on-one advising, try out different career paths, complete internships, prepare for the job search and/or graduate school applications, and connect with supportive alumni and even employers in the fields that inspire them.
